I now state, as I have before stated, that it is my deliberate conclusion, formed after much and patient study and redection, that slavery has no leval existence in Kentucky, and that all and every person in the State, who restrains any other passon of his or her liberty upon the pretures of the very, does so in violation of law; that it is the duty of Governor Bramlette, as the Chief Magistrate of the State, to assert this right of treedom for all its inhabitants: that it is the duty of Governor Bramlette, as the Chief Magistrate of the State, to assert this right of treedom for all its inhabitants: that it is the legal duty of all officers of all departments of the State government, within the scope and sphere of their power, to assert and enforce the freedom of the people of the State, and protect all in life, liberty, and property: that my pass system, instead of being unlawful, was and is in harmony with the law which now prevails in Kelluck,—a law, with respect to all persons I trust after this statement, men who question my point will do so by meeting my arguments, and not by mere assertions which have no other emplort, either in fact or law, than that given by the personal character of the objector. I sm sware from long experience that it will be extremely difficult to obtain for these opinions an impartial harming. It is so much easier to admit old Isilacies to be true than to subject them to the rigid test of careful investigation, and then as negroes are without investigation, in the most men prefer an easy error to a difficult to the mine of the mine of the mine of the mi proaching New Orleans a drunken Colonei commenced beating a passenger, and then went to his room and got his revolvers and comwas the ranking officer on the boat, and no one

But it is not by this method only that slavery has been enceessfully assailed. Bebre the President's prochamition, the decisive period already referred to, there were in round nutribers four millions of slaves, without enumerating those nominally free, because the "inution" forbade their admission to the full rights of manhood. These slaves were distributed ever fifteen States of this Union, including Kentrely and Free slaves, two hundred and thirty (thousand. The largest number of the four million were made free by the proclamation of January 1, 1863. Marvland, West Virginia, and Misseuri, and the Indian tribes, extehing the inspiration of freedom, and falling into the current of national progress, have, by their own act, destroyed slavery within their respective limits, fearing Kentucky and livic Delnaware, whose littleness is thus made wonderfully conspicuous, the sole conservators of human chattelism, and they together, if all the persons of the Atteen and mired races within their limits were still slaves, might be said to retain two hundred and forty thousand. The correspondent of the National Inte'we think, is truly a wise one, and we have cor-dially indorsed it in all its points, but we never meer, writing from the City of Mexico, sa's that Maximilian made an "extraordinary speech here on the 16th ult., the forty-fourth annive sary of Mexican independence, intended, uribtedly, as a warning to the United States' Tennessee and Arkansas, and it is now being The writer proceeds to eay: arried into effect in accordance with the views of its author, as expressed by him in the re-markable speech which he delivered at the

The writer proceeds to eay:

If anybody has been under the Impression that Maximilian was about quitting Mexico because he wished to avoid complications with us, he has been grievously mistaken. Wishing to commit himself irrevocably to remain in Mexico, he cald:

"No landmence in this world can make me waver in my duty; every drop of my blood is Mexican now, and if God sends fresh dangers to threaten our country you will see me fight in your ranks for its lader ndemee and integrity. I am willing to die at the foot of our glorious banner, because no human power can wrest from me the trust with which you have endowed me."

Mo more direct menace could be made to the United States. Maximilian has now gone too far ever to any that he has been mistaken, and that the Maxican people do not desire imperial institutions. It is evident, from the tenor of advices from Paria, that this determination of harimilian, as well as the abandonment of the journey of his wite to Belgium, are the result of direct orders from Napoleon, who is determined to meet the issue.

This step from two distinguished and leading Massachusetts Democrate did more to give backbone to the movement to divide the Democratic party and put an out and cut sectional candidate before the people than anything that could have happened. It was the last feather that broke the camel's back. It was the sealing of the election of Mr. L'incoln, and the prelude to dissolution and sectionalwar. Great consternation and surprise of those South who witnessed and who knew of General Butler's course in that memorable political struggle to find him booted and syntred and sword in hand to take part in the war that cented. has been time enough since his entrance into reasonable doubt. His presence now means war and only war, and a most barbarous kind of war at that. He has changed his policy of rying to reconcile the Mexican people by mild ures, and is showing his Austrian instincts and habits by blood and cruelty. He arrests the most respectable citizens simply because they are known to be opposed to his remaining in the country, burries them off to dungeous, or murders them on the spot! Out upon the

A proclamation has been published, purporting to come from the President of the United States, withdrawing martial law from Kentucky. Was that proclamation a forgery, or was it genuine? We supposed, and still suppose, it genuine? We supposed and still suppose, it genuine? We supposed, and still suppose, it genuine? We supposed the suppose who took in a disappose and the pose in the war that ensured.

It is the disappose and the cause of the South on the brink can take the place of the South on the pose into the guilf, and then comes ont to shoot and the pose who took in a disappose and the pose who took in a disappose and the pose who took in a disappose and the pose in the disappose and the countries in the disappose and the pose in the south in the south in the surface and the pose in the south in the south in the surface and the pose in the south in the south the logic of his own politics. We thought he was fairly committed to the South end can the pose in the south in orting to come from the President of the wes the State laws free to operate as they did radicale.

As to Mesers, Butler and Cushing, we really think they ought to have the amnesty oath ap before it was declared. If this is not the effect of the revocation of martial law, what is it? think they ought to have the amnesty oath ap-plied to the purgation of their crime in the fo-mentation of the late "rebellion." As we are Does such revocation have any effect at all? Possibly, however, the proclamation is a forsere that some of the exceptions of the amnesty proclamation must catch them, their only chance is an application of a special pardon. We know many men out here who have had no part or lot in the war, except to be carried along with its resistless tide of residents, who are ask-gery. Does any body know anything about it? Governor Peirpoint, of Virginia, pubishes a card in the New York Tribune declaring the statement that he had said that the Southern people would not pay any part of the national debt, a gross falsehood. We supposed the story a canard at the time. If Genera Peirpoint made use of any such language he must have done so in a moment of excitement.

The probability is that he was misunderstood

several days ago. He said:

We are continually hearing debates concerning the origin and anthority of the plan of restoration. New converts, North and Smth, call it the President's plan. All speak of It as if it were a new and recent development. On the contrary, we now see that it is not specially andrew Johnson's plan, nor even a new plan in any respect. It is the plan which abruptly, yet distinctly, offered itself to the last Administration, at the moment I have before recalled, when the work of restoration was to begin: at the moment when, although by the world nnperceived, it did begin, and it is the only plan which thus seasonably presented itself; and therefore is the only possible plan which then or ever afterward could be adapted. We have always believed that General Butler was deeply implicated in the responsibility of these political blunders which immediately preceded and brought on the late war as any other one man, with the exception, perhaps, of the late Mr aneay. Every sagacious una in the nation saw in the years 1859 and 1869 that the Democratic party had become the solitary barrier to a sectional outbreak and a violent claruption of the nation. Its bearing and integrity was, therefore, a vital question of consideration and solicitude to every man who loved his country and its peace.

It is a curious fact that while the writer of these lines, who has been under the bann of the Government as a "rebel," was wastlang his stength and energy to preserve the Democratic party, and through it the integrity of the Government, General Butler, who has gained so much ecide for his "loyalty," was taking the very steps that were sure to lead to the destruction of both. We were both members of the National Democratic Convention which met at Beltimore, over which General Butler's farewell speech to that body when he announced that he was about to "eccede" from it and pass to the Breckinridge alandard them fring over a convention of the precipitation party in the same city. He said, in effect, that from was not sound on the question of Southern rights then at issue, and that the territorial sovereignties were offensive to his constitutional cliactories. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Buy, Sylvanus Connthns writes in the Boston Christian Freeman: --We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good-particularly for infants. But of Mrs, Winslow's Southing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our wn family it has proved a blessing indeed, by givin own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colle pains, quiet sleep, and the parents inbroken rest at sight. Most parents an appreciate these blessings. Here is an articla which works operfection, and which he harmlees; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." Green, yesterday, for hiopian, who was as black as a coal pit, atred himself in the garb of a Second Lientenint, with red each and while gloves, a la Offi er of the Day. He swaggered about the streets in he most pompous manner, walking into various one, and demanding whatever suited his tidious palate. Indeed, this (a) erran. ances for which his race is noted. He was as a reward for his quaint performances the bous Licutenant was ordered into solnary conement at the Military Prison for ten days --

RELEASED .- Sergeant John K Bryant, of the Ifth Kentucky cavalry, who had been imprismed at Lexington since June, 1864, was vesterlay ordered to be released. Capt. James C Conshay, of the Forly ninth Indiana infanand Captain H. Bart Jeffries, of the Seven second U. S. colored infantry, were also orred to be released from arrest and restored to ty. These officers were tried before a Geneal Court-martial at Camp Nelson, Ky., in Seplast, upon charges of absence without duct to the prejudice of good order w discipline, and sentenced to be missed the service.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT .- On Tuesday last, a ne-mason named Pfeiffer, in the employ o P. and M. Pfeiffer, had one of his legs crushed and broken, between the thigh and knee, by he fall of a large building stone which he and here were handling. The accident occurred a house in course of erection on Main street. ween Eighth and Ninth. It is feared the roken leg will have to be amputated.

GUFERILLAS -We are informed that Sam ry, the one-armed guerrilla, with several there of his like, are committing depreations in Nelson county. A gentleman was obbed of $240 near Bloomfield day before yesrday. They were at Deateville yesterday They were finely mounted, and dressed superbly.

"I AM DYING, EGYPT, DYING."-The only rect edition of this beautiful piece of music e published by D. P. Faulds, of this city, to whom we are indebted for a copy. Its arrangement by Charlie L Ward is skillful, pretty, antiless, and shows that young gentle se a composer of rare merit and promise.

BAIR.-For the first time in a fortnight, we clieve, Louisville was visited by quite a heavy rain yesterday evening. It was welcomed by every citizen who does not delight in dirt-eating. The dust is laid, but pedestrians are ered with mud.

THE RUNNIES .- According to the terms of paroles, these troublous individuals yes reported at the office of Captain Green. be of the number was discharged, and the there were required to renew their paroles.

Leatherlungs was the favorite from the start. On the start for the first heat, Conscript took the lead and held it, closely pressed at the score by Leatherlangs. Conscript again took the lead for the second heat and maintained it until within a few feet of the string, when Leather-lungs dashed up and lead her home by a nose. The third heat was very exciting and the judges declared it dead between Leatherlungs and Easter. The fourth heat was won by Leatherlnngs after a very exciting contest in which he was sharply pushed by the gallant Conscript. The pools were now largely in favor of Leather-large, and even after the fifth heat, won by Esster, the second favorite from the start, he more than held his own, but after the sixth heat, also won by Easter, she became largely the favorite. THE LATE ROBLERY OF WILLIAM BOWLING about the 25th day of July last, a party of ne gro soldiers visited the house of Wm. Bowling, o sue the city if it is not stopped. A reso- er., near Troy, Gibeon county, Tenn., and, by force of arms, stole therefrom the amount of $6.457 in gold. The names of the negroes sch committed this daring robbery are Privates Henry Hall, Benjamin A. Sparks, Calvin Shaw, Silas Robinson, Wyatt Pigg, Franklin Brown, Willis Vincent, Jerry Bondon, John McClond, George Everett, and John Jackson, of company C, and Sergeant Alexander Shepherd, Corporal George Halfacre, and Privates Samnel Thorr and Richard Thorp, of company L-all of the 4th United States colored heavy artillery. These men were tried before a general court-martial n this city during the month of September, found guilty of the charge as above, and senenced to be confined at hard labor for the period of three years in the penilentiary, to be rst dishonorably discharged the service. General Palmer has m'tigated the sentence to a dishonorable discharge from the service and six months' imprisonment. In accordance with the sentence thus modified, the prisoners have been confined in the penituntiary at Frankfort. With the exception of a small amount, the stoleu money has been recovered and handed over to Mr. Bowling.

Hung -The Jasper Courier is informed that on Tuesday night last a party of men attempted to break into the honec of a chizen of Craw-ford county, Indiana, bordering on Dubois onnty, but were fired at from a window and compelled to leave. The next morning a conple of suspicious-locking strangers were discovered hiding in the woods, and were surrounded and taken into custody by a unmber of the citizens, who asked them to give a satisfac tory account of themselves, which they failed to do. They were then accused of being the men who robbed Summers and tried to break into a house there, which they did not deny. They were then asked to tell their names and where their partners were which they refused to do. The citizens then procured a rope and bung them to a tree to compel them to divulge on the others, which they positively refused to do, and after hanging and letting them down several times, without eliciting any information, they were found to be dead. LOUISVILLE THEATER -Mr. J. E. McDonough, the enterprising and accomplished genanrivalled extertainments of the week, takes a cenefit to night. Arrah-ra-l'ogue of course will fill the house from pit to dome. We trust Mr. McDonough will give us an opport plty of showing our appreciation of him in something that does not draw so well as the great dramnow exhibited. He deserves a full house, and would have it in any play. He is a capital ctor and an elegant gentleman. DEPOSIT YOUR SAVINGS .- It will be seen by n advertisement that the Falls City Bank, in addition to its ordinary business, will, on and after Monday, the 30th, receive on detocit sums of one dollar and noward, in even dollars, and pay three per cent interest. This is a most safe and reliable bank, managed by the best men in the city, and the arrangement will afford an opportunity for laying up small sums for

Efforts are being made to Indnee President
Johnson to forego his determination to terminate the prevalence of martial law in Kentucky.
To this end numerous representations are made of the ill effects of such a proceeding. It is strongly urged that to remove the military anthority there will bring about a rebellion against the emancipation act. But the President has weighed well all the circumstences, and cousnited with Major General Thomas upou
the subject, and is probably better informed than those who seek to give him information.
Those who insist upon the retention of martial

The Times can hardly doubt that Earl Russell's proposal for a commission will nitimately be accepted as the most satisfactory method of adjusting the ontstanding claims between the two nations. No foreign sovereign nor State could have entered into all details of each specific claim and counter-claim, for it must not be forgotten that we, too, have large bills against the United States for damages incurred by British subjects during the war. Still less could we have consented, as Earl Russell points out, to submit the bons tides of our Government or the legal competency of our law officers to the judgment of any foreign Government. The best, if not the only solution of the difficulty, therefore, was that suggested by Earl The Steamship Africa at Halifax. Three Days Later News from Europe Highly Interesting Intelligence. The Commercial says: The stringency in money continnes, but with a slow tendency toward lower rates of interest. The Western cities have not only ceased to draw currency from New York, but the current has set in in the opposite direction, the Chicago banks having now to remit currency to meet their maturing obligations. The Government has disbursed liberally during the last few days at Cincinnati, which will tend to produce ease at that point. The Western demand for money may, therefore, be considered passed, but the South continnes still to require large amounts he movements of the Fenions with all honora-ole openness, notwithstanding the secret filli-oustering plots of its citizens.

The Morning Post thinks that Earl Russel's

> The Daily News continues, if it be absolutely necessary to British honor and dignity that the claims be met by a simple negative l'arilament and the people must rasintain that polition. It hopes, however, that the good sense of modern statesmen may before long find a solution for difficulties which may be serious but surely not irreparable.
